

Camp Life 2024 FAQ

What is Camp Life?

Camp Life is a cornerstone of Family Legacy's mission to bring hope and transformation to Zambia's most vulnerable children. It is a powerful, week-long experience for both the children we serve and the ambassadors who travel to Zambia to serve alongside us. Year after year, children by the thousands and ambassadors by the hundreds come together to experience God's grace and transformation through His Word and the power of the Holy Spirit.

When can I go to Camp Life?

Camp Life takes place every summer during June and July. The Camp Life 2024 dates will be announced Fall of 2023

How do I decide which week to attend?

If you sponsor a child in our program, you may wish to attend a week of camp that they attend. If you do not sponsor a child, choose which week works best for you. Dates and the communities coming each week of camp will be announced Fall of 2023.

What is the cost of Camp Life?

Camp Life costs $5,250 and is tax-deductible. This cost includes airfare, lodging, food, transportation, and covers the cost for the ten Zambian children that will be in your Camp Life group.

What does a week of Camp Life look like?

Participants will arrive on Saturday and depart on Friday. Monday through Friday includes leading and ministering to a group of ten children through various activities, small group sessions, one-on-one time, and much more.

- Saturday – Arrive in Zambia
- Sunday – Attend church and meet your Zambian team members for the week
- Monday – Friday – A jam-packed week of various activities, small group sessions, one-on-one time, and much more.
- Friday – Departure

How many days will I be gone for Camp Life?

The Camp Life trip is ten days, including travel.

How do I apply for Camp Life 2024?

Visit our website or login to your Family Legacy account for application access on Wednesday, October 25th. Be ready to submit passport information, travel details, add-on trip preferences, and pay a non-refundable application fee.

Where will I sleep?

During Camp Life, all participants stay at Family Legacy's lodging facility, Legacy Lodge. Each lodge has 12-15 rooms, outfitted with either a king bed for couples or two singles. Each room is equipped with a private bath.

What will I eat?

During your week of camp, we will provide you with a few staples for breakfast such as eggs milk and bread and lunch, will be peanut butter and jelly sandwiches. Our lodge is equipped with a full kitchen staff that will prepare a full dinner for our participants each night.

What if I have dietary restrictions?

We provide options for individuals with dietary restrictions.

Can a minor go to Camp Life without a guardian?

A minor (an individual under the age of 18 years old) must have a legal guardian or family member with them to qualify for this trip.

Who are the children that attend Camp Life?

The children that attend camp are vulnerable and orphaned children from the surrounding communities in Lusaka, Zambia. Some of the children are students already sponsored and attending our Family Legacy schools year-round.

How many children will I have in my Camp Life group?

You will have 10 Zambian children in your group. If you are a male leader, you will have boys. If you are a female leader, you will either lead boys or girls.

FAMILY LEGACY
LIVE TRANSFORMED.

Will the children in my group be sponsored or unsponsored?

Your group will be made up of a combination of sponsored and unsponsored children.

Will I see my sponsor child at Camp Life?

If the child you sponsor lives in the community that attends your week of camp and is in the 6th grade or below, they will be rostered in your Camp Life group. The communities coming each week of Camp will be announced fall of 2023.

What if my sponsor child attends a different week of camp?

If your child attends camp a different week and you are not able to switch weeks, we encourage you to add a sponsorship event to your trip so that you can spend time with your sponsored child.

What if my sponsor child has aged out of camp?

If your child has aged out of camp, we encourage you to sign up for a sponsorship event.

What airline will I fly on?

Most participants fly on Emirates Airlines with a layover in Dubai.

Can I fly business class?

Yes, you can fly business class at an additional cost. Family Legacy will provide you will a quote upon your request.

Can I book my own travel?

Yes, you can book your own travel if you wish to do so. Family Legacy will offer you a discounted Camp Life rate.

Can I add-on a vacation to the trip?

Yes, many participants choose to add a 3+ day trip to their Camp Life trip. It's a great opportunity to explore Africa and beyond. We will assist you in planning your trip by referring you to our preferred travel agencies.

What is a Sponsorship Event?

A Sponsorship Event is an opportunity for you to spend an additional day in Zambia with sponsored and/or connected students in Family Legacy's sponsorship program that you will not see at Camp Life. Options include a Legacy Academy Sponsorship Party, a Home Visit, and a Tree of Life picnic.

What vaccines do I need?

Currently, the CDC and WHO do not require any immunizations for travel to Zambia. However, it is recommended that travelers consider travel vaccinations such as Covid-19, Hepatitis A, B and Typhoid, as well as staying up to date on routine vaccinations such as chickenpox, polio, etc. Medication for Malaria is also recommended in Zambia, especially for those adding on a side trip vacation to their Camp Life experience. For more information about immunizations, please visit the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention at wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel.

What if there is an emergency? Is medical help available?

Family Legacy's Chief Medical Director, Dr. Brad Guffey, has four board certifications and specializes in Infectious Diseases. He will be available to assess the medical needs of participants if they should arise. In addition to Dr. Guffey, other qualified medical professionals and facilities are available in Lusaka.

